

The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC (2016-17)

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

6. Governance, Leadership and Management

6.1 State the Vision and Mission of the institution

VISION:

The vision of our college is associated with Sh. K. L. Mehta- who was an enlivened visionary, a great social activist, a staunch Arya-Samajist and above all a seasoned teacher. As such he was an architect of the destiny of this institution. He cherished for bringing this institution on the pinnacle of glory by attaining all round excellence. He laid emphasis on all round development of personality of the students joining this temple of learning. He conceived chastity, piety, humility and simplicity to serve as the beacon light for the younger generation. He wanted hard work, diligence and perseverance as the hallmark of their lives. He visualized that liberating women from their own psychological and sociological constraints to imperative for the uplift of women and building sound fabric of the Indian society. Hence he strove for refurbishing of the sagging morale of women folk and bringing them out of the morass of inferiority complex and stigma of weaker gender. He was conscious of the fact that girls hailing from conservative families necessitated not only riddance from a sense of dependence and complexes but also an opportunity to breathe freely and live fearlessly. Empowerment of women and dignified living was dinned into the ears of the students. They were constantly exhorted to be the pride for their family, an asset for the society and rich treasure for the fast growing country.

MISSION:

Our mission is to turn girls joining this institution as perfect human beings. As such we give a clarion call on the very first day to cultivate highest moral values, develop intellectual and spiritual faculties and acquire virtues viz. truth, purity, piety, integrity selflessness and humane attitude. Our mission is to impart education effectively accurately and humanistically. Such education will strengthen character illuminate their intellect and develop their scientific temper.
