

MASTER OF ARTS
(POLITICAL SCI- ENCE)

COURSE OUTCOMES

SEMESTER I

16POL21C1 Western Political Thought & Theory

- CO1: Providing an insight into dominant features of ancient western political thought; ancient Greek political thought with focus on Aristotle and Plato.
- CO2: Evaluating the renaissance: political thought of reformation and Machiavelli.
- CO3: Hobbes as founder of the science of materialist politics.
- CO4: Enable student to go in depth study of Modern political thought.

16POL21C2 Indian Government and Politics

- CO1: Discussing the course effects of national movement and the constitutional development.
- CO2: Introducing the Indian constitution with the focus on the role of the constitutional assembly and examining the essence of preamble.
- CO3: Examining the fundamental rights and duties of Indian citizen with the study of the significance.
- CO4: Analysing the institutions of Indian Union: President, Prime Minister Governor and Chief Minister.
- CO5: Assessing the process of judiciary: Supreme Court and High Courts and the functions of judicial activism and concept of judicial review.

16POL21C3 International Politics

- CO1: Students should be able to identify the basic nature and scope of international politics.
- CO2: To enable the students to learn the theory and approaches to the study of international relations.
- CO3: To enable the students to learn the importance of national power and national interest.
- CO4: To understand the knowledge of balance of power, collective security, international law, international morality and world public opinions.
- CO5: Students will acquire knowledge of foreign policy, diplomacy and its features and functions.

16POL21C4 Public Administration

- CO1: Explaining the nature, scope and evaluation of Public and private Administration.
- CO2: Analysing the major concepts in Public Administration.
- CO3: Tracing the challenges in discipline of Public administration like new Public Administration and development administration.
- CO4: Discuss the theories of organisation and principles- hierarchy span of control, delegation etc.
- CO5: Examine the process of recruitment, training and promotion.

16POL21C5 Research Methodology

- CO1: To develop understanding the basic framework of research process.
- CO2: To develop and understanding of various research designs and techniques.
- CO3: To identify various sources of information for literature review and data collection.
- CO4: To develop an understanding o the ethical dimension of conducting applied research.
- CO5: Appreciate the components of scholarly writing and evaluate its quality.

SEMESTER II

16POL22C1 Western Political Thought

- CO1: Explaining the natural right by Locke and Rousseau's views on general bill.
- CO2: Bentham's views on utilitarianism and J.S. Mill's views on liberty and representative government.
- CO3: Hegel's views on state and theories and concept of Marxism.

CO4: The course equips the students with the most current understanding of thought processes.

16POL22C2 Indian Government and Politics

CO1: Assessing the nature of Indian federalism with focus on the Union-state relations.

CO2: Critically evaluating the Indian party system-its development and ideology of national and regional parties.

CO3: Evaluating the role of various forces on Indian politics: caste, religion, language regionalism.

CO4: Discuss the problem of National building and integration.

CO5: Evaluating the electoral process in India with focus on election commission in India and examine the instruments of local government in India-urban and rural.

16POL22C3 International Politics

CO1: To enable the students to learn the international situation in the field of politics including globalisation, new international economic order.

CO2: To enlighten the student's knowledge on the working and importance of World Bank, IMF, and politics of environment.

CO3: The students should analyse the role of the developed and developing countries.

CO4: To understand India's role in international politics.

CO5: Students acquire knowledge about India's relation with its neighbouring and foreign countries.

16POL22C4 Public Administration

CO1: Discussing the concept of bureaucracy and Marxian theory of bureaucracy.

CO2: Examine the institution of financial administration in India and legislative and administrative control of expenditure.

CO3: Assessing the relationship between the citizen and administration- Lokpal and Lokayukta.

CO4: Analyzing the issues of administrative corruption, culture and administrative reforms.

CO5: Understanding the concept of district administration in India.

16POL22C5 Research Methodology

CO1: To equip students with the basic understanding of the underlined principles of quantitative and qualitative research.

CO2: To introduce students to the key data generation methods of current use in political science research.

CO3: To enable students to choose the most appropriate research methods to address a particular research question.

CO4: To enable students to gain a basic overview of a range of quantitative and qualitative approach to analysis.

CO5: To provide students with the knowledge and skills to undertake the design of political science related research proposals.

16IMSF2 Foundation Elective Paper: Communication and Soft Skills

CO1: To know the basic concept of communication, body language, meetings and business etiquettes.

CO2: To give proper information on how to utilise the time and use of it techniques.

16SOC1 Open Elective Paper: Understanding Sociology

CO1: Define sociology and demonstrate nature and scope of sociology.

CO2: Acquaint themselves with the basic concepts of sociology- society, community, culture, social change, social satisfaction etc.

CO3: Know the basic social institution like family marriage kinship in a scientific way.

CO4: To understand various processes of interaction and socialisation.

CO5: Explain social change and factors affecting social change and socialisation.

SEMESTER III

16POL23C1 Contemporary Political Thought & Theory

- CO1: Discussing the theory of Imperialism and role of party and theory of revolution by Lenin.
- CO2: Explaining the political views by Mao and Gramsci.
- CO3: Explaining the Humanism by M.N. Roy and Gandhi's thoughts.
- CO4: Describing the movement against caste and untouchability Ambedkar's views on social justice.

16POL23C2 Comparative Politics & Political Analysis

- CO1: To enable the students to learn the nature and scope of comparative politics.
- CO2: To understand the theory and approaches of comparative politics.
- CO3: The students acquired knowledge about the constitution and constitutionalism.
- CO4: On successful completion of this course the students should understand the concept of power, authority, and legitimacy.
- CO5: To enlighten the student's knowledge on forms of government – Unity, Federal, Parliamentary, Presidential, Their relationships in comparative perspective: India, USA, UK and Switzerland.

16POL23DA1 International Law

- CO1: This course provides students nature, basis and sources of International Law.
- CO2: This course provides the knowledge of subject of international law and study of International law and municipal law.
- CO3: This course provides the students of the statutory and modes of acquiring and loss of territory.
- CO4: Student knowledge of the identifying the Human rights.

16POL23DB2 Theory & Practice of Diplomacy

- CO1: Explaining the nature, objectives and future of diplomacy.
- CO2: Examine the classification and privileges of diplomatic agents and discuss the qualities of an ideal diplomat.
- CO3: Discussing the evaluation of diplomatic practice and assessing the concept of old and new diplomacy.
- CO4: Analysing the diplomatic language and discussing the organisation of the ministry of external affairs in India and USA.

16POL23DC3 Foreign Policy of India

- CO1: To enable the students to learn basic objective of foreign policy and determinants.
- CO2: Analyse the role of the Nehru's perspective, critical analysis.
- CO3: To enable the students to learn international situations.
- CO4: To enable the students to learn the process of foreign policies making in India.
- CO5: Analyse Indian security environment and India's foreign policy.

16SOC02 Indian Society

- CO1: Explore the roots of Indian society.
- CO2: Realise the basic issues of Indian society like unity in diversity.
- CO3: To understand the process of social change like sanskritisation, westernisation and globalisation and analyse its impact on social, economic, political, cultural spheres.
- CO4: To understand a brief outline of the making of the Indian society
- CO5: To understand gender in sociological analysis and relation between social structure and gender inequalities.

SEMESTER IV

16POL24C1 Contemporary Political Thought & Theory

- CO1: The study of political science traditional and modern theory.
- CO2: Explain the concept of behaviorism and post- behaviorism.
- CO3: Explain the resurgences of political theory and debate on ideology of political theory.
- CO4: Explain theory of Justice John Rawl's and Nozic.
- CO5: Explain Fascism, liberalism and contemporary liberalism.

16POL24C2 Comparative Politics & Political Analysis

- CO1: To enable the students to learn nature and scope of political development, political modernisation.
- CO2: Analyse the role of political culture, socialisation and communication.
- CO3: To enable the students to be aware on the party system.
- CO4: Determine electoral system.
- CO5: To understand the nature of political elite, elite theory of democracy.
- CO6: To enable the students to learn bureaucracy, rule of law, revolution and judicial review.

16POL23DA1 International Law

- CO1: This course offers for the study of the International law, law of the sea and treaties.
- CO2: The course introduction to the international legal system, the peaceful settlement of international disputes.
- CO3: The course provides to students the knowledge of state responsibilities, jurisdiction and immunity, international maritime law and international space law.
- CO4: The main role of international law is to promote Global peace and prosperity.

16POL23DB2 Theory & Practice of Diplomacy

- CO1: Discuss the forms of diplomatic practice- conference, shuttle democratic cultural diplomacy.
- CO2: Explaining the great diplomats- Cardinal, Richelieu, Bismarck, Woodrow Wilson, K M Panniker
- CO3: Analyse the bilateral and multilateral diplomacy and functions of permanent mission.
- CO4: Examining the aims, principles and organs of UNO and discussing the achievements and weakness of UNO.

16POL23DC3 Foreign Policy of India

- CO1: To enable the students to learn the basic concept of economic factors in India's foreign policy, Policies of foreign aid and trade.
- CO2: To enlighten the student's knowledge on role of multinational institutions and corporations.
- CO3: This course aims to enlighten the students to understand Indian economic policy, Impact of globalisation and major challenges to foreign policy.
- CO4: To enable the students to learn the changing international environments, its impact on Indian foreign policy, India's foreign policy achievement and challenges.
- CO5: The student acquires the knowledge about the relation between Indo-Pak, Indo-China and USA-Russia policies and performance.

PROGRAMME OUTCOMES

- PO1: This program Prepares students for UPSC exams and many other competitive exams.
- PO2: Through Competitive exams, they can get employment directly in administration related to public policy organisations, diplomatic offices, intelligence wings.
- PO3: This program can provide them opportunities in teaching department at any level school to universities etc.
- PO4: Though this program law can be another field for placement.
- PO5: More expertise can be attained through this program for joining any government or non-Government organisations.
- PO6: With theoretical Knowledge, Government and politics, public administration, comparative Politics, field of politics can be focused for successful application.
- PO7: This program helps in understanding of the constitution and its working system in the foreign countries.

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

- PSO1: The students should possess the knowledge, skills and attitude during the end of the M.A. Degree course.
- PSO2: By virtue of the training and curriculum, they can become a budget analyst, campaign organiser, budget examiner, public opinion analyst, corporate social policy issues analyst, legislative analyst, corporate public affairs advisor, legislative coordinator, political scientist, corporation legislative issues manager, lobbyist, political commentator, state legislator, etc.

PSO3: In case of attaining subject knowledge, they can be political commentator, state/ union legislator, legislative coordinator, public affair advisor, policy analysts, political scientist, Campaign organiser, lobbyist.

PSO4: Research can be another field for attainment through the study of proficiency in Research Methodology.

